

Product Data Sheet

Yellow Cerro Cement

FEATURES:

- Phosphoric acid based binder
- Cures at 300°C (570°F)
- Useable to 800° C (1470°F)
- Bonds well to super-alloys
- Shelf life is 1 year after manufacture date

Yellow Cerro Cement is a high quality ceramic cement used for attaching strain gages and temperature sensors to metal and super alloys.

Also recommended for use on uncoated carbon composites.

Available in 1 oz. bottles with a shelf life of twelve months.

Safety Data Sheet SA-207 and Bonding Instructions are available on our website:

<http://www.hitecprod.com>

For current pricing on strain gages and installation products, please contact us at sales@hitecprod.com or 978-772-6963